Use Agreement Images, Videos, and Audio Material

Conditions and Guidelines:

1. All materials provided remain the property of the Alabama Department of Archives and History (ADAH), and may not sold, traded, shared, or deposited with another library or archives, or used in any way not specified in this agreement.
2. ADAH does not sign outside permission forms.
3. This agreement covers one-time use only. Provided material may be used by the publisher for promotional purposes.
4. Material may not be substantially altered other than copying or enhancement of definition. Elements such as people, signs, or any other part of the images may not be digitally removed or added. The perspective or depth of the image may not be digitally altered. Images may not be reversed. Cropping and/or enlargement to enhance portions of the image is permissible.
5. Material should not be presented or described in any way that does not accurately describe its content, time period, or geographic location.
6. Images may not be posted on websites at resolutions higher than 72 dpi.
7. The ADAH does not claim to control all rights of reproduction for all materials in its collections. The publishing party assumes all responsibility for clearing reproduction rights and for compliance with the U.S. Copyright Code.
8. The publishing party assumes full responsibility for the use of the material and conformity to the laws of defamation and privacy, and holds harmless the Alabama Department of Archives & History from any claims arising as a result of the use of the material.
9. The following credit line must be included for each item reproduced (for films, a credit line in the closing credits will suffice): Alabama Department of Archives and History.
