

Alabama DEPARTMENT OF ARCHIVES & HISTORY

DISCOVERY INTERNSHIP

The Alabama Department of Archives and History (ADAH) is inviting applications from undergraduate students for its summer 2025 Discovery Internship. Intended for students who have little or no experience in the cultural heritage field, the Discovery Internship is an opportunity for the student to work in virtually every department at the ADAH, exploring a broad range of career options. The intern will work 150 hours divided between six program areas at the ADAH:

- Appraisal/Records Management
- Archival Collections Management
- Digital Collections Management
- Museum Collections Management
- Public Programs/Education/Communications
- Reference

This internship is paid, and students may be able to obtain academic credit depending on the policies of their educational institutions.

Effective communication skills and proficiency in Microsoft Office applications are required. All applicants must be at least 18 years old and be enrolled in an academic program or a recent graduate.

Duration: Summer 2025

Academic Level: Undergraduate

Location: Alabama Department of Archives and History
624 Washington Avenue
Montgomery, Alabama 36130
